

4 Hit With Tear Gas At Haunted House

Four youths working at Sweet 98 radio's Halloween haunted house on the Mangelsen's parking lot in Westgate Plaza, 3457 S. 84th St., were sprayed with tear gas by a girl walking through.

Police Capt. George Hauger said all four were treated at Bergan Mercy Hospital for eye and skin irritation and released after the Monday night incident. Treated were Brian Skutnik, 17, of 7925 Grover St.; Ken Poe, 14, of 7906 Emile St., LaVista; Rocky Ogden, 12, of 8966 Laurie Circle; and William Johnson, 15, of 3322 S. 91st St.

Hauger said all four were sprayed with a tear gas-like substance by a girl described as white, about 17 and blond driving a white and yellow Oldsmobile with Iowa license plates. The girl was said to be accompanied by two boys, one about 10, the other 13.
